

Are you interested in preserving your land?

*Do you want to know what conservation options are available
to you?*

*Do you have other goals
for income,
retiring,
expanding your
land holdings,
or transferring
your land
to the next generation?*

*Do you want to explore whether your land
preservation
goals fit in with your other goals?*

If you answered yes to any of these questions, please join The Nature Conservancy and an expert panel of presenters to discuss:

Land Conservation Options and Estate Planning for Delaware Landowners

This free workshop is open to the public and is being offered twice:

Thursday, February 19, 2009

9:00am – 11:30am

St. Jones Estuarine Research Reserve
818 Kitts Hummock Road, Dover

Tuesday, February 24, 2009

6:00pm – 8:30pm

Carvel Research and Education Center
16483 County Seat Highway, Georgetown

Presenters include:

Beverly Wik, Esquire – estate planning, estate and trust administration

Mike Parkowski, Esquire - environmental, real estate, land use law

Ray Book, CPA – tax planning, business consulting, retirement and higher education planning

Jamie Masten, Appraiser

There will be time to ask questions of the presenters and reference materials will be given to attendees. Refreshments will be served.

For more information, please contact The Nature Conservancy at khackett@tnc.org or 302-584-2170.

Support for these workshops is provided by the Delaware Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Control, the Marshall-Reynolds Foundation, the Schell Family Foundation, and The Nature Conservancy.